

Basic Portfolio Website

You must try making your own portfolio website for yourself. Showcase your projects, your social media handles, your experience on the website. You can refer to some templates available for free on Google for that.

Skills Required – Responsiveness, UX design, HTML, CSS, Icons

Internship report

Skills Required:

Responsiveness: Ensure that your website is responsive, meaning it looks good and functions well on various devices and screen sizes (desktops, tablets, smartphones).

UX Design (User Experience): Consider the overall user experience. The website should be easy to navigate, and information should be presented in a clear and organized manner.

HTML: Use HTML (Hypertext Markup Language) to structure the content of your website.

CSS: Apply CSS (Cascading Style Sheets) to style and layout your web pages.

Icons: Incorporate icons for a visually appealing and informative design.

Tasks:

Showcase Projects: Create sections to showcase your projects. Include images, descriptions, and links to project repositories or live demos.

Social Media Handles: Provide links to your social media profiles. You can use icons for platforms like LinkedIn, GitHub, Twitter, etc.

Experience Section: Include a section where you describe your educational background, work experience, and any relevant internships.

Templates: Utilize templates available for free on platforms like Google, GitHub, or other design websites. Customize them to fit your personal style and preferences.

Internship Report:

Document your experience in creating the portfolio website.

Mention the challenges faced and how you overcame them.

Reflect on the skills you utilized and developed during the process.

Include screenshots or links to the final portfolio website.

Recommendations:

Keep the design clean and professional.

Use a color scheme that complements your personal brand.

Optimize images and other assets for web performance.

Test the website on different devices and browsers to ensure compatibility.

Consider adding a contact form or section for potential employers or collaborators.
